Food for Thought

School is just about to begin. Are you ready? It also means all of our fall ministries are about ready to begin. Are you ready? Next week we will begin a new sermon series for the Fall called Faith in HD. Checkout the newsletter this week to see what it's all about. Today we're just going to do a single sermon from the book of Habakkuk. Habakkuk is one of my favorite minor prophets. It's a short book with a message that is extremely relevant for all of us today. And it will be a great lead in for our series on FAITH. So dig out your Bibles, find the book of Habakkuk, and mark the spot. I think God is going to touch our hearts in a special way today. Are you ready?
